

EXHIBIT AUndisputed Requests from Non-Party Investor E's Motion to Seal

Entry from SEC's Response (Exhibit A)	Corresponding Request from Non-Party Investor E's Motion	Proposed Redactions in Non-Party Investor E's Motion	Undisputed Portions to Be Sealed (from Proposed Redactions)¹⁰
PX5	Request No. 1	1-B (Dkt. No. 160-2)	Paragraphs 1-5, 8.
[REDACTED]	Request No. 2	2-B (Dkt. No. 160-4)	All.
[REDACTED]	Request No. 3 ¹¹	3-B (Dkt. No. 160-6)	All names, email addresses, and non-party Investor E's initials.
PX5-A	Request No. 4	4-B (Dkt. No. 160-8)	All blacked out redactions previously marked by the SEC, which consists of names, email addresses, and non-party Investor E's initials.
PX5-B	Request No. 5	5-B (Dkt. No. 160-10)	All blacked out redactions previously marked by the SEC, which consists of names, email addresses, and non-party Investor E's initials, plus additional redactions of identifying information of (i) initials on pages 3 and 10 and (ii) name on page 9.
PX28	Request No. 6	6-B (Dkt. No. 160-12)	All blacked out redactions previously marked by the SEC, which consists of names, email addresses, and non-party Investor E's initials.
PX148	Request No. 7	7-A (Dkt. No. 160-13)	All marked redactions (consisting of identifying information), except the non-party name in the body of the email.
[REDACTED]	Request No. 8	8-B (Dkt. No. 160-16)	All.

¹⁰ See Non-Party Chart, at 4-7.

¹¹ This Request No. 3 also [REDACTED]. The Motion requests that this document remain off of the public docket altogether, given that it was the wrong document, in the first place. The SEC does not oppose this.